Stops Hair Coming Out: Thickens, Beautifies.

A few cents buys "Danderine." After a few applications you cannot find a fallen hair or any dandruff, besides every hair shows new life, vigor, brightness, more color and abundance.

MOVIE PROVIDED FOR ROTARIANS

Rotarians and guests to the number of 60 enjoyed two reels of motion pictures at the monthly luncheon of the Norwich Rotary club at the Huntington house Wednesday.

The motion pictures were shown through the courtesy of George W. Carroll, who is in charge of the entertainment for the luncheon. The picture was at two reel Buster Keaton comedy, One Week. The film which was shown before the luncheon was served was thoroughly appreciated as was shown by the rousing vote of thanks given Mr. Carroll at the close of the luncheon, both for the picture and for the extra cost of the menu.

The song leader for the luncheon was Eben Learned, and Henry J. LaFontaine, pianist of the club, sang Dear Old Pal. Why Don't You Answer Me? Several of the new songs which will be sung at the installation of the Williamite Rotary club on next Wednesday evening were tried out and proved a howling success.

The following were appointed to have charge of the meetings in March: L. Crawford, J. H. Smith and Herbert Adams. An invitation from the New London club requesting the members of the Norwich club to visit them next week was received and many of the members of the local club signified their intention of attending.

The following letter from the Chamber of Commerce of the city of Norwich, dated Feb. 16, 1921, was received by the Rotary club:
